California Casualty Award for Teaching Excellence

California Casualty is a title sponsor of the NEA Foundation Award for Teaching Excellence, one of the nation's most prestigious awards for public educators. The state level recipients each receive $650 to be presented to their school in their name as the winner of the California Casualty Award for Teaching Excellence. The AEA 2012 recipient, Donna Youdelman of Centennial Elementary School in Tucson, is one of 35 awardees who will be honored at the NEA Foundation's Salute to Excellence in Education Gala to be held in Washington, DC on February 10, 2012.

Statistics show that crashes are the leading cause of death for 16- to 19-year-olds, accounting for 40 percent of all teen deaths. In 2008, the California Association of Highway Patrolmen, California Casualty, and the California Teachers Association, among others, came together to create a nonprofit awareness and education program that brings attention to teen driving behaviors and choices.
